THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 9, 1974

Dear Senator Eastland,

I cannot leave the White House without first expressing my gratitude to you and Mrs. Eastland. Your being at the dinners and receptions here always made them more fun for me.

Over the past almost six years there have been so many pressures and activities and your help in difficult times made these events easier and more pleasurable. I will always appreciate your assistance and friendship and look forward to continuing our association.

With every good wish,

Sincerely yours,
